Closing

Dear APSEA members and friends,

On behalf of the Asian Pacific State Employees Association (APSEA), it is my pleasure to welcome you to the APSEA Foundation and APSEA Annual Scholarship Gala. We are very proud of our accomplishments this past year in advancing the careers of APSEA members and advocating for their interests, also working with the community to promote career opportunities, civic participation and cultural awareness. We delivered a successful Career Development Program for 1000 participants on career development and upward mobility over the last year. Our Navigating Leadership Program 2016 is underway and moving fast. This year's Series, The Intrapreneurs' Innovation Boot Camp provided participants an understanding of an evolving dynamic innovation process and learn how to apply it in the departments and agencies.

Tonight, we are here to recognize the personal and professional achievements of three outstanding Asian Pacific American leaders who exemplified dedication to the State Government and tireless service to APSEA. Together with APSEA Foundation, we continue to promote and encourage advancement in higher education through the APSEA Foundation scholarship program.

Thank you for joining us as we celebrate and applaud our growth, accomplishments as well as our award and scholarship recipients. Thank you to all the sponsors and volunteers who made this evening possible!

Best Regards,

Linda Ng
APSEA President

Dear Asian Pacific State Employees Association Foundation friends and guests:

Welcome to the 17th Anniversary Gala of the APSEA Foundation. Last year we modified our scholarship program to reach out to our targeted applicant pool of the underserved population. This is our second year since we modified our scholarship eligibility criteria and as expected, our applicant pool didn't disappoint.

Without the generous donations of our corporate, community organizations and individuals supporters, the APSEA Foundation would not be able to help our youth realize their scholastic or professional goals. Tonight, we honor these impressive high school students with college scholarships to help them transition into the new phase of their lives.

The foundation strives to expand the understanding and knowledge of our future leaders by highlighting the connection between government, politics, business, and communities. To help our young leaders understand State government, our partners the Asian Pacific Islander Capitol Association (APICA) provide a learning experience to do so with a 10 week summer experiential – a unique program to include both experiences at the Capitol and state agencies.

We are very grateful to this year's major sponsors, SEIU and Verizon for their continued support over the years. Their commitment to the Asian Pacific community and youth programs throughout the local region has always been exemplary. In order to do more requires additional funding and with the dedication and time spent, Bill Liu is helping us provide a new vehicle to achieve additional funding for our young leaders and current state worker development. The vehicle is this year's Big Day of Giving – a 24 hour challenge that lifts up lives and provides a one stop shop of giving for a number of local non-profit organizations. The day of the event is May 3rd, 2016. Additional information to follow.

Finally, I want to thank the dedicated group of professionals I am honored to work with again this year, namely the board of directors, committee chairs and advisory board members. To our retirees, the State may call you retired but to me you are the FOUNDATION of the APSEA Foundation. With your continued support and outstanding volunteer work, I hope to be able to continue the fine work of my predecessors

Thank you and visit our website, www.apseafoundation.org for updates and online applications for 2016.

Very best,

Randy Kajjoka, President
APSEA Foundation

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

CALIFORNIA STATE TREASURER JOHN CHIANG

John Chiang was elected on November 4, 2014, as California's 33rd State Treasurer. As the State's banker, he oversees trillions of dollars in transactions every year. One of his top priorities is to conduct the State's business in the most transparent manner possible.

Chiang sells California's bonds, invests the State's money and manages its cash. In addition, he manages financing authorities that help provide good-paying jobs, better schools, improved transportation, quality health care, more affordable housing and a cleaner environment. He is sitting on the governing boards of the nation's two largest public pension funds – the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS) and the California State Teachers' Retirement System (CalSTRS).

Prior to being elected Treasurer, Chiang served from 2007 through 2014 as State Controller, during which time he:

- Took steps during the Great Recession to preserve cash to meet obligations to education and bond holders.
- Worked to ensure the fiscal solvency of the State's pension plans, and was a leader in pension and corporate governance reform.
- Aggressively used his auditing authority to identify more than $9 billion in taxpayer dollars that were denied, overpaid, subject to collection, or resulted in revenues, savings and cost avoidance.
- Ensured that $3.1 billion in unclaimed property was returned to the rightful owners.

JOE XAVIER

Director, CA Department of Rehabilitation

THERESA XAVIER

Retired, CA Department of Conservation

Joe Xavier and his wife, Theresa Xavier are inspirations to the community. They dedicate much effort and time in serving Asian Pacific State Employees Association (APSEA), Association of State Employees with Disabilities and advocating for people with disabilities.

Joe, in his capacity as Director for the Department of Rehabilitation (DOR), was instrumental in launching APSEA'S Career Development Program. Through Joe and Theresa's sponsorship and support, APSEA and DOR conducted a year-long program for all state employees to further develop their knowledge, skills and abilities to attain their highest professional goals. Joe and Theresa have endorsed the Navigating Leadership Program since its inception in 2012 donating their time and services to ensure each session was successful and inspirational for attendees.

Joe came to the United States from the Azores with his parents and seven siblings in 1966. He grew up on dairy farms working with his family and spoke limited English. His vision was impaired early in life by retinitis pigmentosa, but overcame this profound challenge and language barrier. He went on to become a successful business entrepreneur and eventually a civil servant.

Joe was appointed by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger in 2010 as deputy director for the DOR's Specialized Services Division for the Blind and Visually Impaired, and the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. There, he was responsible for Blind Field Services, the Business Enterprises Program, the Independent Living Unit and many others. Now as DOR director, Joe continues to advocate for people with disabilities to help them be independent. He brings stakeholders and community together to build a meaningful collaborative partnership to share and effectively utilize available resources.

Theresa is retired from the State of California after 37 years of experience in public administration by providing personnel management services and assisting individuals with disabilities to become employed, independent and be treated equally, among many other responsibilities.

Joe and Theresa have been happily married for 23 years. They have three beautiful children, Angie, Olivia and Julian. When not traveling, they enjoy spending time with their grandson Li.

RHONDA BASARICH

Office of Fiscal Services, CA Department of General Services

The stream of life that defines the character of this year's APSEA 2016 Member of the Year Award began in the Philippines, where Rhonda Basarich was born. She was raised by her grandmother and uncle until she was 9 years old. Rhonda entered 4th grade, in the U.S., not speaking any English. Her parents were the role models for the strong and faithful work ethic that she carries in life.

Rhonda's swift progression in state service began in 1979 as a student assistant with the CSUS Library. In 1984 she graduated from CSUS with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. From 1990-92, Rhonda was part of a two-year management development program that included posts with the California Transportation Commission, the Planning Division, and the Budget Office. In 2004, Rhonda took a long sabbatical to prepare for her future retirement from state service. From 2005-2008, she attended Palmer West College of Chiropractic in San Jose, California. In 2009, while still working for the State full time, Rhonda opened her part-time chiropractic practice. In 2011 Rhonda began working at the Department of General Services. In 2013, she was promoted to Chief of the Office of Fiscal Services (CEA) at DGS, a position she still holds.

Rhonda has been an active member of APSEA since 1995. She is past President for two consecutive years (2000-2002), continuing her avid involvement with NLP yet today! Rhonda's passion, integrity, influence and commitment are a steadfast foundation for APSEA. She is a faithful servant and loyal steward in her service to enhance the forward movement and leadership of state government and our community!
